

1. A candidacy will only be confirmed after we have received your application fee.
2. The decision of the jury is final and will not be subjected to reviews or appeals.
3. All rounds are open to the public.
4. It is recommended to play the program from memory.
5. It is NOT possible to change the program after submission.
6. The organizers reserve the right to record all the performances during the competition, for use at their own discretion for radio and television broadcasts, or other purposes. Each candidate, upon submission of their application, will renounce all rights, fees and claims regarding such recordings, films and broadcasts.
7. All contestants under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult who will carry full responsibility over the minor at all times during the competition period. If the adult is not the contestant's parents, a permission note (signed) must be submitted by at least one of the parents with the application.
8. All travel costs such as tickets and visas, are to be carried out by the participant. The participants are solely responsible to apply for their own visa however an invitation letter will be available by the International Piano Competition "The Neapolitan Masters" upon request. Visa requirements are to be requested at the respective embassy or consulate.
9. Contestants are also responsible for their own accommodation costs. A list of possible accommodations near the premise of the competition will be included in the info package sent to each accepted candidate.
10. The competition will not be held responsible/liable for the consequences of any accidents or incidents involving the contestants.
11. The name of the candidate's teacher/professor will not be printed in the program for the jury.
12. If a candidate is studying with a member of the jury, this particular jury member will not be allowed to vote for their student.
13. Rules may be subject to change without notice.
14. the names of the candidates admitted to the competition will be public